THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE GRAND LODGE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK-ELEC-TION OF GRAND OFFICERS.

The Grand Lodge of the State of New York was opened yesterday morning with prayer by E. W. and Rev. John G. Webster, Grand Chaplain; the Most Worshipful James W. Husted, Grand Master, presiding in the Rast Grand Representatives from Texas, Novada, Indiana and Virginia were introduced by the Grand Mursbal, welcomed by the Grand Master, and received with the grand benors.

The committee on this report reported that they had examined it carefully and found that every Masonic district in the State had been visited and received inis uniform throughout the State, and the seal and ability of the Grand Lecturer is highly satisfactory. The Committee on Finance reported at length on the resolution doing away with the salary of the Grand Lecturer, through their chairman, R. W. Jesse B. Anthony. The report in effect stated that if the services of a Grand Lecturer were required he should receive a proper compensation for his services, as, indeed, it ou'd be difficult to get and competent brother to devote his time to instructing the craft without compen sation. The report concluded by recommending a salary of $1.000 per annum, with $400 for travelling expenses. The report was adopted.

M. W. Isaac Phillips nominated for the office of Grand Master for the ensuing year the M. W. James W. Husted. The Grand Master replied, declining the

DEFETY GRAND MASTER.

W. George W. Johnson nominated the R. W. Edmuni L. Judson, of Albany, for the office of Deputy Grand Master. He was unanimously elected. Having been introduced by M. Eliwood E. Thorne, the R. W. Brother Judeon was congratuated by the Grand Master, and replied in a squtable manner.

The present incumbent, R. W. Jesse B. Authony, who was unanimously elected Senior Grand Warden by a show of hands. For the office of Junior Grand Warden the present incumbent, R. W. John D. William, R. W. Benjamin Flag, W. A. Brodie and I. Bradford Prince were placed in nomination. R. W. Brother Prince declined. R. W. Benjamin Flagler was reported as having received a majority of all the votes reast for Junior Grand Warden, and was declared elected accordingly. The R. W. John D. R. W. Josse B. Anthony, from the Finance Committee, reported on the resolution to reduce the salary of the Grand Secretary to $3,000, including clerk hire. The report stated that while the Grand Lodge should be comorpical it should also be just, and that a man who had given up a remunerative profession, and devoted his valents and ability to the craft for twenty-lour years, should not now, in his old age, by thrown side.

The report was adopted, leaving salary and clerk

W. Frank I. Lawrence nominated for the office of Grand Treasurer the present incumbent, R. W. Gregory Satieriee.

W. Joseph I. Stein in nominating R. W. Charles S. Arthur, stated that the noble example of the Grand Master should be followed, and that the brethren who had the ambition to fill so responsible a position should have a chance. A recess was taken till two P. M. ANGINST MASONS.

Among the old Masons attonding the Grand Lodge to-day were R. W. John W. Timson, Past Junior Grand Warden, aged eighty-five. He is litty-eight years a Mason, and has been a member of the Grand Lodge for fifty-five years. The R. W. and Rev. R. L. Schoommaker, who was Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge for twenty years, was present. The R. W. Brother F. G. Tisdail, Past Grand Junior Warden of the Grand Lodge of Quebec, and who first appeared as a member of this Grand Lodge in 1839, was also present. He is forty-one years a Mason.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE NEW GRAND MASTER.

It would be idle to speculate upon the appointments to be made by the M. W. Joseph J. Couch, the newly elected Grand Master, but it is probable that the R. W. and Rev. R. L. Schoommaker may be one of the grand chaplains and the W. Edward Hepkins, of St. Cecile Lodge, now musical director, may be one of the grand stewards. The latter named brother has the advantage of the support of an R. W. brother who has the greatest weight in the Grand Lodge and probably of any brother in the craft, not even excepting both Grand Masters put together, the R. W. Isaac H. Brown. His weight is 339 lbs. AFTERNOON SESSION.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Grand Lodge resumed labor at two P. M., M. W. James W. Husted, Grand Macter in the East. The first business in order being the election of a Grand Treasurer a bailot was taken which resulted in the re-election of R. W. Gregory Satterlee. M. W. Clinton F. Paige offered an amendment to the constitution providing that the tax of fifty cents on each member for the Hall and Asylum fund be permanent instead of for five years. Referred. M. W. James Gibson, from the Committee on Constitution and Laws, to whom was referred the reduction of pay of members and representatives from $5 to $3 reported in layor thereon, but against adopting the proposition to abolish nor any of past grand officers. This, being an amenument to the constitution, would have to he over till beat year, under the rule, if even adopted, but it was lost by a rising vote. The committee further reported other amendments to the constitution, which were had over till next annual communication, under the rule.

The election of Grand Secretary being in order the M. W. Stephen H. Johnson nominated the present incumbent, K. W. James M. Austin, M. D., who was elected without opposition, this being the twenty-lifth time, the was introduced and resumed his quies. In congratuating Brother Austin on his re-election the M. W. Grand Master paid him a high compliment on his being elected for the twenty-lifth time Grand Secretary of the largest grand lodge on the Continent, and spoke of him as one who never failed a friend and never leared a foe, in accepting the Grand Secretary referred to his services as such and as treasurer to the Hall and Asylum Fund for nineteen years. In 1853 he took the onlice at a sacrifice, giving up his practice as a physician. He was now poorer than he was then and he was then not over rich. included the several standing committees of the Synod were appointed on foreign and domestic missions, on education, publications of the Church, on overtures, Judicial business and others. Printed reports of some of the old committees were circulated, read and received. A committee on appeals was also appointed, to whom was referred the case of the flev. #### THE TRADES' SAVINGS BANK.

AN INDIGNANT MEETING OF DEPOSITORS-SOME QUEER FACTS ABOUT A BECKIVERSHIP. A meeting of the Trades' Savings Bank depositors was held isst night at No. 275 West Twenty-third was held last hight at No. 275 west twenty-ture street, to hear the report of a committee appointed to get a statement of the bank's affairs from the receiver. Mr. Dudloy Jardine presided and Frederick G. Hull acted as secretary. The committee reported through Mr. Jardine that they could get no statement from the receiver. The bank failed last August. By the influence of J. M. Freeze and Dexter A. Hawking, it was claimed, Mr. S. B. White, president of the Grocers' Bank, was appointed receiver. At that time $70,000 was due depositors. The Trades' Savings Bunk was a depositor in the Greeces' Bank, and had overdrawn its account to the extent of $4,000. The impropriety of appointing the President of the latter bank as receiver was loudly declaimed against by the depositors. The Grocers' Bank, it was said should not be allowed to make good their account from the assets of the Trades' Bank, but should come in any other creditor and take its share of the loss. It was said that the trustees of the bank had become personally lable for the amounts due the creditors by repeated violations of the Banking law. Mr. Dexter A. Hawkins was said to have been one of the trustees and to be now acting as attorney, both for the bank and receiver. An instance was related where three mortigages were made out on property in Beach street, all signed and scaled the same day. The Trades' Bank held the bird mortigage. The helder of the first and second mortgages was now about to foreclose on the praperty and there would not be enough left of the proceeds of the sale to pay even the second mortgage. It had been found that a great deal of the bank's money had been lent on second mortgages on property that would barely pay the first mortgage. Mr. Jardine stated that the committee had seen Mr. White, and that the inter would make them no statement. When asked about the $4,000 would be taken from the assets of the Trades' Bank before the other creditors came in for their share. When the committee interpreted to mean that the $4,000 would be taken from the assets of the Trades' Bank before the other creditors came in for their share. When the committee protested Mr. White said that he was tired of being receiver and that the depositors knew their remedy. They could go to the supreme Court to have another receiver appointed. There were about 500 depositors in the bank, but of these nearly 500 had only small sums of less than $10 each on deposit. In this fact lay the great trouble of getting sofficient inunds from the remaining 300 to carry on a sun before the Supreme Court. and if the strongest terms the action of Receiver White and agreeing had overdrawn its account to the extent of $4,000. The impropriety of appointing the President of the

ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY.

The St. Nicholas Society held its quarterly meeting inst evening at Delmonico's. This society is composed of the decendants of those who have resided in this city anterior to 1780. A large number of this class were represented at the meeting, including the families of the Schuylers, Livingstons, De Puysters, Crugers, of the Schuylers, Livingstons, De Paysters, Crugers, Greenes, Vermilyons, Ketteletas, Cheesemans, Schells, Kiersteds, Remsens, Swans, McLeans, Beckmans, Knickerbockers, and others to the number of about one hundred and fifty. The quarterly reports presented a very favorable exhibit. The treasurer showed that he had $100,000 on hand and no chartifies to be bestowed except those applied for outside of the organization. The congregation last evening was a beautiful representation of the still existing whole souled heartiness among the old school and the young school Knickerbockers of New York.

Fire Commissioner King and other members of the Committee of Arrangements of Tammany Hall, to arrange for the reception of Governor Robinson next Monday evening, met yesterday at the Wigwam in Fourteenth street. The Tammany Hall General Committee held their regular monthly meeting at Tammany last evening, Henry L. Clinton in the chair. A set of resolutions from the Committee on Organization was read, thanking Governor Robinson for his devotion to the interests of the people of New York in defeating so many schemes of fraud and corruption, and for his faithful and prompt defeat of measures which would have enslaved the electors of large cities.

The resolutions also called on the leaders of the party to meet the attacks of their opponents uncompromisingly, ending in these words:—"firm for compromise has passed away, and he who refuses to obey the will of the sovereign people violates the trusts reposed in him."

posed in him."

Henry I. Clinton, Augustus Schell, ex-Judge Spencer and Leo Dessar spoke in response to the resolutions, each of whom took occasion to pass a glowing calegium on Governor Robinson in the course of their remarks. After the reading of the programme for the reception of the Governor on Monday night the meeting adjourned till the first Thursday in September, 1877.

AN EX-ALDERMAN MULCTED.

In the Circuit Court at White Plains yesterday ex-Alderman Michael Mooney, of Yonkers, figured as defendant in a suit for false imprisonment, damages being laid at $5,000. The plaintiff, Jacob Hartman, a wood dealer at Mount Vernon, it appeared from the wood dealer a known to show, appeared for the defendant was private and temporary to the plaintiff some the wood from a party named McDermott, in the town of Yonkers, during December last. McDermott represented to Hartman that he was the duly authorized agent of Mooney, who had a short time previously bought the wood from a man named Keily. It was claimed by the plaintiff's conarci, William Bourke Cockran, that the defendant was privy to the transaction between McDermott and Hartman, but when the latter commenced to remove the wood Mooney caused his arrest and temporary imprisonment. The defence was that the arrest was morely technical and not intended to degrade or reflect upon the delendant in any way. While addressing the jury Francis Larkin, who appeared for the defendant, undertook to cast some personal reliections on the opposing counsel, who in his summing up reforted in such an incisive manner as to aimost convolue the Bar and speciators with laughter, in which the dignined Bench itself could not refrain from participating. The jury, after being out a lew minutes, returned with a verdict of $500 for the plaintiff. estimony, purchased about three hundred cords of

JUVENILE DELINQUENTS

The fity-second zanual meeting of the Secrety for the Referention of Javonile Delinquents of this city was held resterday at the Home, on Randail's Island. Quite a number of friends interested in the Home were present, in spite of the stormy weather. A thorough every satisfaction. Cieveland the sum of $127,000 for his entract on the new reservoir. The Board concluded contract on the new reservoir. #### HOW TO STOP STEAMBOAT RACING.

To the Epitos of the Herald:-- Another word with regard to these wonderful North Shore (States Island) ferries. If the city authorities would only consider the following and, without much ado, put the same into execution, there not only would be a stop put to these races, but travel between New York and the island would be greatly facilitated, with-out actually increasing the number of Irips now daily made. And the remedy is for the city potentates to bring the heads of the two lines together, and compel them to come to a mutual agreement and change the time tables of their respective lines in such a way that no two boats would have the city or Staten Island at the same hour. Ther opposition, instead of being a nuisance, would become a public benefit. (i) W. S.

WAS IT A JOKE? TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-Your article in Monday's issue about the steamer Thomas Collyer, of the Staten Island line, as racing with other boats is really very funny, massauch as there is other boats is really very funny, leasuruch as there is no boat on the river, except the Mary Powell, can boat on the river, except the Mary Powell, can such that the Collyer. The Castleton, of the North Shore line, has tried on one or two occasions to ran with her by taking her suction, but it was no race, because the Collyer was only carrying twenty-divergences of the Castleton. The steamer that pariect salety. The whole thing was a joke on the part of Captain "lkes," of the Castleton. The steamer Thomas Collyer has not been racing with any boat. I know what I say, as I ride on her every day. If the Castleton or any other boat on the river desires to run 100 miles out to see and back again site can be accommodated, and give her ten miles lead, for $100,000. This proposal comes from one of the directors of the

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HEBALD :--I read comptaints in the Henaud about late arrivals at theatres, whose coming in disturb the audience at theatres, whose coming in disturb the audience already scated. It has occurred to me that one reason for this irregularity of attendance is that theatres do not advertise the time of beginning their performance. The first and of this date contains the advertisements of evening performances at Duly's, Union Square, Grand Opera, Wallack's and Broadway theatrea in not one instance is the hour given at which the doors will be epen or the curtains raised. Propie would be more punctual did they know when they were expected.

W. J. T.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-I desire to join "W. W." in his protest against the late comers at Wallack's. I have never been there but this same thing happened, and almost the entire first act is lost to persons who come to enjoy the play, and not to show off fine clothing, for it is a singular coincidence that only persons who have the best seats and dence that only persons who have the best seats and the finest clothes come in late. This nuisance does not exist at any other city theatre to such a degree as at Wallack's, and were it to bappen at a Parisian theatre, the late comers would be greeted with a storm of hisses, for I winessed an instance of this at the Chatelet, in Paris. I am confluent it is as great a nuisance to Mr. Wallack and the actors as it is to the audience. If the audience were to express their disapproval as is done in Paris, once or twice, the nuisance would very speedly be abated, I am confident.

PUBLIC COURTESY.

CONCEALED WEAPONS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-It seems strange that among your long list of daily complaints that no one as yet his mentioned one class of animals that infest our streets, fully as dangerous as-dogs when maddened. I allude to the habitual pigtol carrier. It I recollect aright there is a law still on the statutes forbidding the carrying of concealed weapons. Let this law be carried into force by the Mayor and Common Council, or else let the same law be applied to these bold and brave gentlemen, as to the owners of dogs—license them and make them wear tags displayed in such a manner to warn persons who happen to come into contact with them.

A VOICE FROM MAIDEN LANE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-Whose business is it to repair Maiden lane? We bu siness men who have to resort to trucks to carry our merchandise and who are obliged to use Maiden lane to get to our stores and warehouses, teel that it is wrong to leave so wide and much used a street in the condition it is. If the holes were of a moderate size it might be different, but when they are deep enough to almost allow a truck to sink to the hubs, and seemingly growing deeper every week, it is time something were done.

READER.

THE CONDITION OF THIRTY-EIGHTH STREET. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-

I beg to call the attention of the authorities to the outrageous condition of Thirty-eighth street, just east of Second avenue. The southeast corner is littered with old scrap tron, bales of rage and all manner of junk. Further on is a builder's yard, with piles of old building material and decayed rubbish strewed over the walk. To crown this state of affairs there is not a whole dag in the sidewark for a distance of 250 feet below Second avenue, and on rainy days it is almost impassable. Cannot this nuisance be abated? THIRTY-EIGHTH STREET.

CENTRAL PARK IMPROVEMENTS

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-The erection of a fountain in the centre of the upper reservoir, or reservoirs (for there are really two) in the Park is a good idea, but if this cannot be conveniently done let the Commissioners cause to be made artifidone let the Commissioners cause to be made artin-cial islands, upon which shall be growing flowers, plants, or small trees. A keeper with a boat could at-tend to them. Or the placing of a gondola there, as was done on one of the small lakes, would be better than nothing, and would give the illusion of a pleasure lake instead of an immense walled well, seemingly adapted to no other purpose than to drown in. JOY. JOY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HEBALD:—
Allow me to draw the attention of the theatre-going public to the imposition practised by the managers of he Grand Opera House in the sale of their seats. Seeing their advertisement in yesterday's HERALD that they reserved seats for fifty cents 1 went there this mernreserved seats for flity cents 1 went there this morning to secure two, which they advertised for the above price, when the man in the box office informed me that the choice of those seats was twenty-five cents. I told him those seats were advertised at fifty cents, and that the price stared me in the face on the placarded price list placed over the box office (orchestra circle, reserved, flity cents, He curity told me that the price of those seats was twenty-five cents, and he did not wish to argue with me. If the choice of their flity-tent seats is seventy-five cents, why do they not advertise them as such? Is it right to impose upon the public in this manner?

THE HUNTER'S POINT STENCHES. TO THE ROITOR OF THE HERALD --

I noticed the immentations of "One of a Million Sufferers" in your issue of Sunday, and recalled to mind the fable of Hercules and the carter-t a, the gods help those who help themselves. The senate this year passed a bill giving our Board of Health special year passed a bill giving our Board of Health special power in the premises. This bill was deleated in the lower moses through the machinations of the stench makers, assisted by a powerful lobby. But is there not still a remedy? Under the old law the Metropolitus Board of Health, of whose powers the present Board is the successor, had purisdiction over Queens county. Those powers, as to Queens county, it is claimed, have never been revoked. Let influential cuttients of the region affected by these most obnoxious and dangerous odors meet in council and demand that our Board of Health act instanter in the premises if they have the power. If not, let a league be formed to not in Queens county. The aroma of last Friday evening was like a midsummer's night's dream—in pandemonium.

A JOINT SUFFEREN.

To the Enton of the Heraldents on the cast side of this island, from Fourteenth street to the Park, to be this island, from Fourteenth street to the Park, to be poisoned by the odors from Hunter's Point? long are a few rapacious sudividuals to inflict this perfectly powerless for the protection of its citizens in their health and comfort that a large part are compelled to leave their homes so soon as the warm weather begins because a low shameless manufacturers will not spend a few hundreds yearly to decderize their productions? It certainly seems that we have no repeace capitals where such an outrage would not be submitted to for an hour, and as a citizen of New York, born upen the siand, while obtiged to close all my windows and deluge my rooms with deodorizes during this fearful heat, I cannot, choked with these pestilential odors, answer the remarks of my European guests "that a republican form of government for a large city is the worst in the world." There being apparently no remedy here the aid of the Legislature was invoked last year. A committee was sent here. They visited Hunter's Point, where everything was prepared for their reception. They apont their time agreeably at the First Avenue Hotel and their returned to Albany, and the odor not extending quite to the capital, nothing was done by that body of statemen called the Legislature of the State of New York. New, Mr. Editor, as the authorities (who, I presume, are so called because they have ine authority) do nothing, can you not agitate a call for a public meeting, where the sufferers can be heard, and where abler citizens than I am may suggest a remedy for one of the greatest nousness which has ever afficient the cit? ource but to submit. # DEATH TO TRADE NEWSPAPERS.

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL'S NEW ORDER- COV-ERING THE POSTAGE TO WHICH THEY ARE LIABLE-AN INDIGNATION MEETING.

A largely attended indignation meeting of newspaper publishers was held yesterday alternoon in room 111 of the Astor House. The meeting was called to take action respecting a recent order of the Post Office Department at Washington requiring certain journals which have hitherto passed through the mails under the regular newspaper rate of two cents per pound to be rated hereafter under the third class. This ruling is based upon an act passed July 12, 1876, which provides :--

That transient newspapers and magazines, regular publications designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation, or for circulation at nominal rates, and printed matter of the third class except unscaled circulars, shall be admitted to and be transmitted in the mails at the rate of one cent for every two owners or fractional partitles of one cent for every two owners or fractional partitles of one cent for each two additional owners or fractional partitles of the thereof.

It appears that the publishers of a paper called the Grocers' Criterion, published in Chicago, were notified in March last by the Postmaster General that it could no longer go through the mails at the old two cent rate, but must pay according to the act above mentioned which calls for one cent for every two ounces. The publishers of the Criterion sought at Washington to have the ruling reversed, but failing in their efforts, as is alteged, they insisted that other trade publications should be similarly taxed when passing through the mails. The Post Office Department, acting under the advice of Judge Freeman, Assistant United States Atterney General, notified the publishers of the American Greer in this city that their paper must be made amenable to the new tariff by the following letter:—

The construction placed by the Assistant Attorney -eneral upon the terms "regular publication designed primarily for advertising purposes" does not confine such publication to those advertising one's own business, but 14 applies also to such publications as advertised to business or pursuit of a certain class of the general public. INFORMING THE TRADE GENERALLY.

Postmaster James, on the 30th ult., recoived a letter from the same source as the above, calling his attention to the decision of the department in the case of the American Grocer. On the following day Postmaster James son to some forty or fifty publishers of trade journals in this cut a copy of the letter to the American Grocer, given above. A private meeting to discuss the matter was held at the office of the American Grocer, given above. A private meeting to discuss the matter was held at the office of the American Grocer last Saturday, when the following gentlemen were appointed a committee to take action in the matter:—Messrs Burke, of the Tobacce Leaf; Bonfort, of the Wine and Liquor Review; Builey, of the Slow and Leather Reporter; Williams, of The Iron Age; and Jones, of the American Grocer. This committee had an interview on Mouday last with Postmaster James on the subject, and requested him to obtain if possible a delay from the Postmaster General in carrying out the order, it being the intention of the Postmaster to put it into effect forthwith. Mr. James replied that he would endeavor to obtain the delay, and the same committee then resolved to call the trade together, which was done yesterday, as above announced.

ORGANIZING THE TRADE.

When the meeting came to order yesterday it resolved itself into a permanent organization, with Mr. Furrelly, of the American News Company, as president; Mr. Jones as secretary and treasurer, and a regular executive committee was appointed, comprising the committee of five above mentioned. It was resolved that the committee should, in its discretion, take such action as night seem to it advisable to induce the postal authorities to recede from the position which, it is claimed, they have wrongfully assumed, and report at the next meeting. This new rule, it is claimed, will have the effect of stopping the publication of hundreds of trade journals published in this city and throughout the country, as it will subject them to a rate of postage of from one to five cents per copy.

THE CONTINENTAL RECEIVERSHIP.

NO LONGER A BONE OF CONTENTION-MR. WILLIAM R. GRACE RESIGNS TO SAVE THE POLICY HOLDERS AN EXPENSIVE LITIGATION. As foreshadowed in the HERALD soveral day's since, the contest over the receivership of the Continental Life Insurance Company has been brought to a sudden termination. The policy holders had begun to look upon the litigation as interminable, and it seemed as if the law's expensive delay would consume all there was to distribute. But all this has been averted by the action of Mr. Grace in gracefully resigning the office Within a space of seven months the Continental has had three different receivers. First, Mr. John J. Anderson, who resigned; then Mr. William R. Grace, and finally Mr. John P. O'Neil, who was appointed by Justice Westbrook on the ground that the former by Justice Westbrook on the ground that the former appointments by Justice Pratt were illegal. A long contest was anticipated between Messrs. Grace and O'Neil, and it was thought the question could only be settled by the Court of Appeals six months hence.

MR. L. I. Coudert, counsel for Mr. Grace, appeared yesterday at a Special Term of the Supreme Court, Brocklyn, before Justice Gilbert, and presented the potition of Mr. Grace, representing the following lacts:—

subsequent service of an order upon him declaring his appointment illegal, and requiring him to account for his trost and turn over the assets to Mr. John P. O'Neil, the petitioner says that he has brought a number of suits to recover the assets of the Continental Company, which are still pending, and the difficulties pertaining thereto are intensified and greatly aggravated by reason of the unfortunate legal difficulty above suggested. Should be determine to contest the right of Mr. O'Neil great expense would be incurred and great damage and delay ensue, all of which would necessarily iall on the policy holders. The petitioner says that after mature reflection, and bearing in mind that the object of appointing him was to protect the policy holders, he has come to the conclusion that it would be greatly to their interest that the contest should be avoided, and that he should be permitted to account under the order mentioned so that hereafter all doubts as to who is the lawful receiver may be avoided, and the company wound up and the assets delivered without unnecessary delay and expense.

The petitioner theriors prayed that he might be directed to comply with the said order issued by Justice Westbrook, that upon his compliance he might be discharged from all further responsibility and liability in the premises, the bonds furnished by him cancelled, and that such further order might be made as the Court thought proper.

Justice Gilbert thereupon granted the petition, and and that such further order might be made as the Court thought proper.

Justice Gilbert thereupon granted the petition, and directed Mr. Grace to comply with the service of the order made by Justice Westbrook.

Mr. Grace's application was made upon the modified order of Justice Westbrook, providing for the passing of his accounts by Morgan A. Dayton as referee.

In an interview with Mr. Grace the Herrald reporter was informed that the step teken had been resolved upon ten days ago, and be had been waiting only for a modification of Justice Westbrook's order. He said he had nothing of great individual importance to gain by remaining in the office, and aside from all other considerations the welfare of the poincy holders required a speedy settlement of the issue. By consummating this he thought he had subserved the protective purpose for which he was appointed.

It will be noticed that Mr. Grace has asked no definite remuneration, but leaves it to the will of the Court. The same authority must regulate the settlement of his coursel fees, of which he has paid nothing wintever. With the exclusion of taxes, the total expenditures during his regime will amount to about $12,000. The fund which he leaves to the administration of his successor is between three and four milions.

"THE FOUR GUN BATTERY."

The police of the Thirteenth precinct, Brooklyn. have arrested a band of young burglars, who had their beaudquarters in a shanty in the swamps, knows as "The Four Gun Battery." The structure in ques-tion was occupied by Stephen McCabe, his mether and sister. Stephen has been two terms in the Penitenticry. Captain Riely, who has been engaged in working up the oumerous robberies, generally committed on liquor stores in his precinct, ascertained the name of each person who was in the habit of frequenting McCahe's, and having done so he "gathered them in," one by one without permitting the others to know of the arrests. The prisoners now in custody are "fill" Gibney, of Nostrand avenue, hear Flushing; Alexander Hughes, Patrick Tierney, of Delmouleo place, and Stephen McCabe. When the proprietor of the rendezyous was captured a bunch of skeleton keys and a steel sectional lockpick were found in his possession. Mrs. McCabe says her son never remained in the house after midnight, but he never told her the nature of his bosiness. John tiamitie, who keeps a grocy store on Flushing avenue, was also arrested on suspicion of receiving a quantity of the booty of the gning, and two other persons are held as witnesses. sister. THE COMPO ESTATE.

MRS. HARRIET A. TRUBER FINALLY VICTORIOUS IN THE SUITS AND IN FULL POSSESSION-THE END OF LONG AND TEDIOUS LITIGATIONS

WESTPORT, Coun., June 7, 1877. The excitement here inst winter, occasioned by the apparent vacating of Mrs. Trubee's title to the "Compo" estate, and the farce of a sale by suction in the interest of a new owner of the personal property on the premises, was succeeded by a period of tran-quillity, the like or which had not been known to "Compo" for many a year. Quiet continued unbroken until Saturday last, whon the people of the village were most agreeably surprised by the appearance of Senator Edward W. Seymour, of Luchfield; William K. seeley, of Bridgeport, and Judge Daniel C. Birdsall, of New York, counsel for Mrs. Trubee, who proceeded to the Town Clerk's office, and there placed on record a deed of the bundsome estate known as "Compo" and a bill of sale of the extensive and valuable personal prop-erty on the premises, made by Alfred Noxon, of Hal-ston Spa, N. Y., on the 31st of May last, to Mrs. H. A.

Trubes.

TAKING POSEESSION.

They then proceeded, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Aaron Sanford, of Newtown, Conn., to the premises, where they found Moses W. Wilson in charge and Mrs. Georgiana Alden, the former occupant of "Compo," in one of the cottages. Wilson, who was in the cottage, came out and met the vasitors, who told him their mission, exhibited their authority and elemanded the "Compo" keys and immediate possession. Wilson at first refused, stating that he did not know Noxon's signature, but on being informed that the deed was on record and that Judge Birdsall hold a properly authenticated power of attorney from Mr. Noxon to place Mrs. Trubes in full legal possession, and that he intended to do so at all huzards, thought "discretion the better part of valor," gave up the keys and left the premises. Mrs. Adden, in the meantime, having departed for Wilson's house.

After, it the meaning, having above house.

Mra. Trubes appeared on the scene from her Brook-lyn residence at about two o'clock, accompanied by a lindy friend, and proceeded to formally take possession, since which time she has had mediantes and laborers employed in bringing the property back to the splendid appearance it presented in former days.

PERSONATING THE DEAD.

AN ALLEGED CONSPIRACY FOILED.

Some time ago judgment was recovered in the Su-preme Court, at the suit of John Meyers against lichael J. Maloney, an alleged depositor in the Bowery Savings Bank. An application was made for the examination of the bank as third parties having the money on deposit belonging to Maloney. The matter came before Judge Barrett, who, not fully satisfied with the appearance of things, refused to make the order. The attorney for Meyers then consulted with Mr. Norwood, one of the counsel for the bank, to learn what further proof of identity was required in Mr. Norwood, one of the counsel for the bank, to learn what further proof of identity was required in order that the monoy might be paid over. Upon investigation it was discovered that the Maloney who deposited the sum of $700 had died some time previous. This discovery, however, was kept sceroi, and Meyers (who claimed that Maloney owed him $-800 and his alloged debtor again appeared before Judge Barrett for further examination. The boges Maloney actually swore that he was indebted to Meyers in the sum named; the papers which had been served upon him by Simon Abrihams, a special deputy, residing at No. 55 Orchard street, were produced, and the faut that a regular coaspiracy had been entered into to defraud the bank now became apparent. To obtain the order from Judge Barrett for the examination of the bank it was necessary for Meyers to swear that Maloney had money on deposit which the bank refused to apply to the judgment. It transpired that no such application was ever made, and thus the net was nearly weven. The matter again came before Judge Barrett yeaterday for further investigation, but it was stated that the hvo Maloney was in Boston and would not be back for a week. But the game was up. As Meyers, alias Whelau, the proprietor of a concert saloon at No. 155 Chatham street, and Simon Abrahams, who is alleged to have entered the conspiracy, were leaving court, they walked into the affectionate embrace of Detectives O'Connor and Field, of the District Attorney's office, and were represented by Mr. William F. Kintzing, were lodged in the Tombs to await examination this morning. The Maloney who actually had the deposit in the bank book was stolen and handed over to the alleged conspirators to obtain the money.

THE CAB COMPANY.

Yesterday $6,000 additional stock was taken in the Manhattan Cab Company; $1,000 by Mr. Simon Ham-berger, of Philadelphia, and $5,000 by the National cab Company of that city. Soveral hack drivers yes-derday called upon Mr. Kavanagh and expressed their desire to take shares in exchange for their horses and coupes, provided they were in due course employed as drivers at $1.80 per day. Mr. Kavanagh and his col-leagues are willing to accept this odds when the proper time arrives, conditionally that the coupes and horses shall be valued by an independent judge. It is now pretty well understood that a meeting to elect direc-tors and other officers will be held early next week; meanwhile the aubscription books will remain open until the day before the election.

Objections were made to a number of the claims, particularly that of ex-Governor English, and the election of an assignee was postponed until a future meeting.

At a meeting of the creditors of Avery & Riggins, manufacturers of steam radiators, at No. 3 Broad street and at No. 431 East Tenin street, and at the office of Register Little, no agreement could be had in the election of an assignee in bankruptcy, and the register accordingly appointed Mr. John H. ## THE VALUE OF AN EYE.

An action was brought in the Circuit Court at White Plains, Westchester county, yesterday, in which Joseph Egan, a coachman, sought to recover $10,009 damages for the loss of one of bis eyes. The delendant in the cuse was Chauncey Smith, Jr., a lad of fourteen, whose parents sive at Keusico, and with whom the plaintiff parents rive at Keusice, and with whom the plaintiff was employed when he suffered the injury alluded to. It appeared that on or acoust July 1, 1876, the defendant purchased a pistol with which to commemorate the then imminest initional holiday. According to the plaintiff's testimony the lad came to the barn where he (the coachman) was at work, and pointing she weapon at him, exclaimed, in mock instanton of a highway man, "Your money or your life!" At the instant the pistol exploided, resulting in the injury above mentioned. For the defence it was set forth that the weapon went off accidentally while its owner was showing it to the coachman. The jury did not accept this version of the shooting, however, and rendered a verdict awarding the plaintiff $1,500.
